

DON'T GET SMISHED

SMiShing is the SMS version of phishing scams. Instead of a bad email, you get a bad text message on your smartphone requesting information.

Don't click on or open any links sent in text messages.

Don't reply back – ever. Even if asked to reply with STOP, unless you know the text is legitimate.

Block robocalls

Verify information through known sources.

PROTECT YOURSELF.

For more information, go to <http://bit.ly/smish-scam>